EXPLANATION OF MAP

The Declaration of Independence was read to the Continental Army in New York, in the presence of Washington, on the Common, called the Fields, later City Hall Park, July 9, 1776. Upon this Common the Soas of Liberty had for ten years erected their Liberty Poles. Here Alexander Hamilton trained his Artillery Company in 1776. The old Common was substantially identical with the triangle bounded by Broadway, Chambers Street and Park Row. The north-east corner was gradually worn off until, with the opening of Centre Street, the Park was bounded by Broadway, Chambers Street, centre Street and Park Row. It thus remained until 1867, when the Post Office site was sold.
